Hixburg

Hixburg, Oct. 12.- Proud the Ruritans were when they sat down with their ladies — there were forty people in all — to the home-cooked dinner at Pamplin Home Demonstration Club prepared and served in the Pamplin Elementary School on Friday evening.

Roast chicken, home-made rolls and apple pie a la mode were just a part of the menu.

Overhead lights shone on colorful fall flowers with which Mrs. Leslie Ligon had decorated the tables.

The real cause of pride was the fine paneling that the Ruritans had just finished putting on from floor to ceiling. Probably, never before had anyone seen a school cafeteria with such handsome walls.

The Pamplin school bought the wood, and the Ruritans did all the work gratis. Besides that, the Ruritans paid half on the chairs at the tables.

Other projects their club sponsors are farm classes, a repair shop, young boys' baseball team, and a Boy Scout Troop.

Mr. Ed Harvey is president; Richard Williams, vice-president; Everett Tibbs, treasurer, and Lewis Motley is secretary.

The real spur to the improvement in the Pamplin School is the new principal, Mr. Dancel le Roux. A long way he is from his native land, Johannesburg, South Africa. His ancestors were French and Dutch. Nine years ago he could not even speak English.

When asked about the school, he replied, "I like the work, and am very happy here."

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Gilliam, of Statesville, N. C., visited the Eugene Searses and Willie Hixes on Saturday morning. From there they went to Pamplin for a family dinner at the home of Mrs. Boyd Ford and Mrs. H. M. Marshall.

Other dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Gilliam, of Lynchburg.

Mr. Ernest Carson came home on Saturday, after spending a month with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hix, in Prospect.

An Appomattox High School boy was sauntering along as if he did not have a care in the world. A lady who was standing nearby stopped him. Knowing that English is the nemesis of many students, she inquired, "who is your English teacher?"

"Miss Black," he stated.

In a surprised voice, she continued, "Mary Rives Black?"

"Yes," he stated.

"Is she good?" the lady asked.

Quick as a flash came the answer, "very good." She called after his retreating figure, "the schools are coming up."

Health and Beauty

We will see more blondes this fall and winter than ever before. Blonde is due in part to the new processes in hair dyes that make a girl look like she was born with golden hair.

Another thing that helps is the quicker dye process, less than two hours, and the range of natural colors to choose from.

One of the most popular colors will be claret blonde — a blonde shade with just a slight cast of pink in it. Beige blonde has a slight gray cast that is flattering to most women. Mutation blonde is a mixture of gradual shadings of blonde, lighter toward the face and darkening towards the back of the head.

Blonde hair became unpopular some years ago because it made some women look older than their years. Now all the harshness has been removed and these new shades have a softening effect on the face and thus make them appear younger.

We will see new interest in hair ornaments such as tiaras and jeweled combs and clips.

Once upon a dime...

Fifty years ago, a dime was a sizeable coin. It would buy half a dozen oranges or nearly a pound of coffee. It represented half of many a workman's hourly wage. Yet it would only light one of the dim, 100-watt carbon lamps of that time for about 10 hours.

Today, most workers earn a dime in a very few minutes. Yet that dime buys sixteen times as much electric light! It will cook five meals or entertain the family for twenty hours on TV.

That's quite a change in electrical values during VEPCO's fifty years. And behind it is VEPCO's ceaseless battle to keep kilowatts a bargain in a world of rising costs.

Important in the battle are the millions this independent Top-of-the-South utility invests in efficient equipment. But most important is the teamwork of more than 5,000 VEPCO men and women who, together, produce more power than all the cars, trucks, tractors, and locomotives in the area they serve!

Low-cost power to help you LIVE BETTER—ELECTRICALLY!
